Penn advises clients in real estate transactions, ranging from the complex to the routine, involving the acquisition, financing, development, and sale of retail, office, medical, warehouse, mixed-use, multi-family, and hotel real estate matters. A substantial portion of Penn's practice focuses on representing landlords and tenants in preparing and negotiating leases for retail, office, warehouse, solar, and medical office properties. Penn also represents national homebuilders in the acquisition and development of residential subdivisions and planned communities including the incorporation of homeowners' associations and preparation of restrictive covenants.

Prior to joining the firm, Penn practiced in the Charlotte and Raleigh offices of a large international law firm and served as temporary law clerk to the Honorable G. Steven Agee, United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.
